

OPPORTUNITY

Position: Associate - Supply Chain / Procurement Funding (80 - 100% FTE)

Location: Switzerland. Europe and other locations that are CET-compatible also considered.

Clarmondial is an independent Swiss investment advisory company, focused on mobilizing capital for the sustainable management of natural resources. We develop and implement funding solutions to improve agriculture supply chains. Clarmondial provides strategic advisory services to leading companies, investors, conservation organisations, and other partners to mobilize capital for environmental initiatives globally.

We are looking for an Associate to join our team in 3Q 2024, reporting to Clarmondial in Switzerland.

Key tasks

- Support ongoing advisory mandate with the sustainable finance team of one of the largest global consumer goods companies.
- Assess funding and investment needs in agricultural supply chains, with a focus on regenerative agriculture.
- Contribute to the development of investment mechanisms and funding solutions.
- Support discussions with potential funders to accelerate partnership origination and development. These may include content development, analysis of partner offering, financing strategy design, grant applications, and stakeholder coordination.

Criteria

- Commitment to and interest in sustainable agricultural supply chains with relevant sector knowledge, primarily in environmental topics (e.g., climate, agroforestry, energy). Candidates with experience in procurement or trading will be prioritized.
- Knowledge of a range of financing partners supporting sustainable agriculture (public funders, development finance organizations, philanthropy). Prior experience in developing funding applications is a plus.
- Good understanding of and experience in various emerging markets, Europe and/or USA.
- At least 5 years of relevant work experience. Ability to analyse and synthesize information for audience-specific content development.
- Availability to travel within Europe.
- Strong English writing and communication skills, knowledge. Expertise in other languages is a plus.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office.

How to apply: brief motivation letters (max. 1 page) and CV should be sent to hr@clarmondial.com. Please use "Associate – [Your Surname]" as the subject line of your application e-mail.
